

RAMI KADI
maison de couture

RAMI KADI MAISON DE COUTURE TAKES OVER THE 76TH ANNUAL CANNES FILM FESTIVAL

At the 76th Annual Cannes Film Festival, held from May 16 to May 27, 2023, Rami Kadi Maison de Couture once again captivated attendees with its exceptional designs. A prolific presence at Cannes, the Maison dressed an array of Arab and international public figures in their exquisite creations from the Spring-Summer 2023 "Mantra" collection, alongside selections from previous seasons. The brand also unveiled custom-made masterpieces, adding an exclusive touch to the star-studded event. Rami Kadi's presence at Cannes continued to be a highlight, showcasing the perfect fusion of contemporary elegance and timeless allure on the red carpet.

French and Saudi model Amira Al Zuhair radiates in a custom-made Rami Kadi Couture off-shoulder rosewater gown, as she attends the "Jeanne du Barry" screening and opening ceremony red carpet at the 76th Annual Cannes Film Festival.

Maye Musk exudes elegance as she attends the Amfar Cannes Gala in a custom-designed Rami Kadi Couture silver-sequined suit.

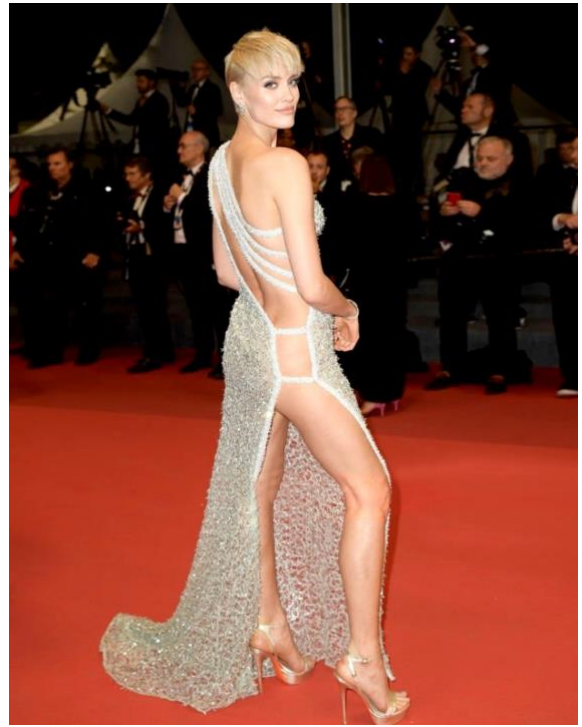

Chinese actress Zhou Dongyu wears a blanc de blanc tailored Rami Kadi Couture suit, as she attends the Kering Official Women Motion Talk, adorned with silk threads and transparent sequins embroidery in a floral motif, featuring a long train.

American model Grace Elizabeth turned heads in a custom-designed Rami Kadi Couture black fitted gown, adorned with ethereal organza draping, as she attended the "Monster" premiere during the illustrious 76th Annual Cannes Film Festival.

Brazilian model Valentina Sampaio steals the spotlight in a Rami Kadi Couture rosewater crystalized asymmetric bodice gown, featuring an overlapping skirt, from the Mantra Spring Summer 2023 collection, as she attends the “La Passion De Dodin Bouffant” red carpet.

Actress and model Wallis Day attended the "Il Sol Dell'Avvenire" red carpet in a Rami Kadi Couture netted sequins gown, featuring crystallized vine bands cascading from the shoulder to the waist, for the 76th Annual Cannes Film Festival.

Nojoud Al Rumaihi embodies elegance in this custom-designed Rami Kadi Couture crepe lurex gown, featuring a structured two-layered open back, for the “Killers Of The Flower Moon” red carpet during the 76th Annual Cannes film Festival.

Rose Bertram attends the Cannes Film Festival in a Rami Kadi Couture red pleated lurex gown adorned with a voluminous satin duchess cape from the Mantra collection.

Didi Stone steals the spotlight in a “Mantra” Rami Kadi Couture off-white asymmetric gown adorned with shimmering crystals. Her enchanting presence illuminates ‘The Zone Of Interest’ red carpet.