

Maison Rami Kadi Captivates on the Red Carpet at the 78th Cannes Film Festival

The 78th Cannes Film Festival brought together the worlds of cinema and haute couture in spectacular fashion—and Maison Rami Kadi was at the heart of it all. With bold, imaginative designs gracing the red carpet, the maison delivered a series of unforgettable style moments, showcasing its commitment to pushing the boundaries of glamour while celebrating individuality and craftsmanship. This year, the maison dressed over 20 international celebrities, each embodying the brand's visionary spirit and refined elegance.

Egyptian Artist, Actress, and Singer Youssra Wears Rami Kadi Couture at the Opening Ceremony of the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival.

At the “Partir Un Jour” screening red carpet during the Opening Ceremony of the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival, all eyes were on Youssra as she captivated attendees in a striking flame scarlet red gown by Rami Kadi. The custom creation, featuring asymmetric, flowy draping across the bodice and arm, offered a bold yet graceful silhouette.

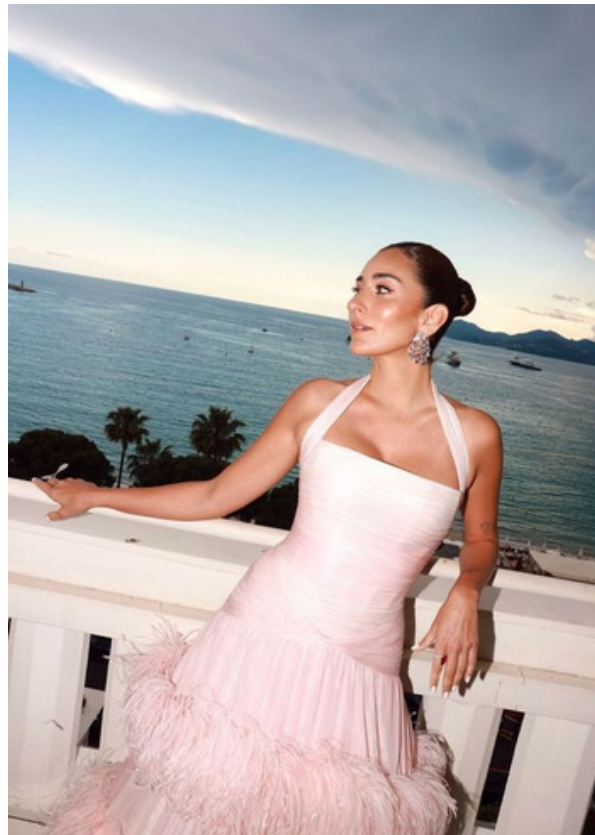

Amidst the glitz and glamour of Cannes, Youssra radiated sophistication, bringing refined elegance to the iconic red carpet and reaffirming her status as a style icon and influential figure in the world of cinema.

Actress Amina Khalil Wears Rami Kadi Couture at the Opening Ceremony of the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival.

At the Opening Ceremony of the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival, Amina Khalil captivated the crowd in a custom halter-neck gown by Rami Kadi. Crafted from blush pink lurex, the gown featured a sculpted bodice and flowy layers with a fluffy feather finish, creating a look of effortless elegance on the iconic Cannes red carpet.

Amina Khalil stood out on the Cannes red carpet, radiating a perfect mix of elegance and modern glamour. Her look showcased her unique style and growing influence in both fashion and cinema.

Raya Abirached Wears Rami Kadi Couture at the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival.

Dressed in a fiery satin creation by Maison Rami Kadi, Raya stuns at the “Dossier 137” red carpet at the 78th Cannes Film Festival, with a corseted fit, crystal-detailed bow, and flowing tiered skirt.

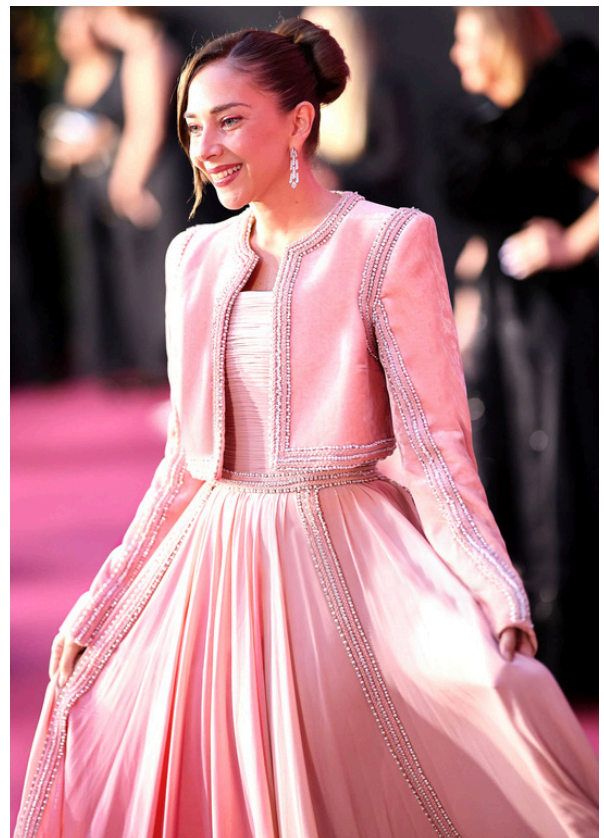

Radiating elegance and charm, Raya Abirached’s look complemented the dazzling atmosphere of Cannes, effortlessly blending elegance with refined beauty. Her look captured the glamour of the evening, making her stand out with effortless poise.

Fatima AlBanawi Wears Rami Kadi Couture at the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival.

For the “Women In Cinema” gala hosted by Red Sea Film during the 78th Cannes Film Festival, Fatima AlBanawi wore a silver-pink draped gown embellished with pearls and crystals, complemented by a velvet cropped jacket from the “Meydān” collection.

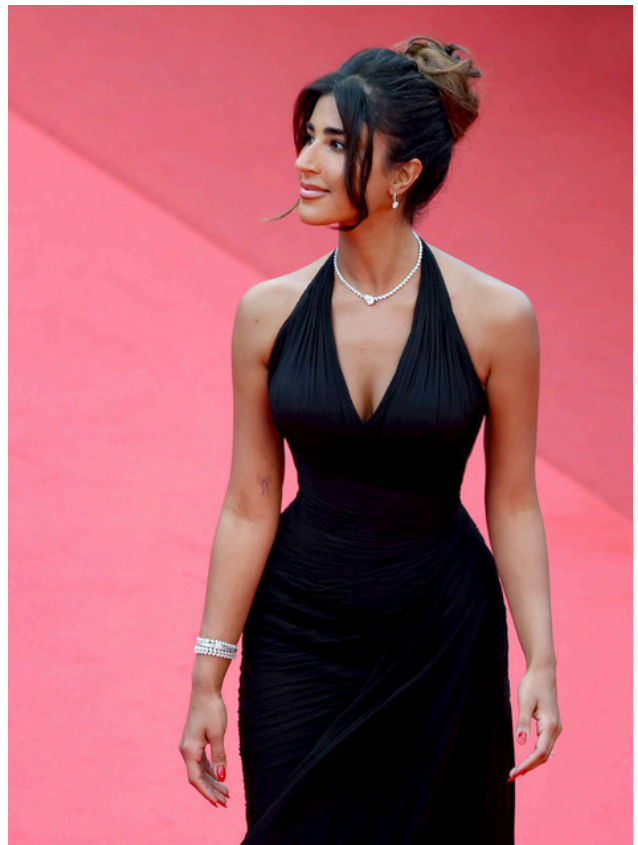

Fatima AlBanawi stepped into the Cannes spotlight with a look merging modern polish and classic flair. Every detail of her look echoed sophistication, making her presence both serene and unforgettable.

Laila Abdallah Wears Rami Kadi Couture at the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival.

Laila Abdallah turned heads at the “Nouvelle Vague” screening red carpet during the 78th Cannes Film Festival in a stunning onyx black gown by Maison Rami Kadi. The dress featured a plunging V-shaped halter neckline, with soft asymmetrical draping across the bodice that added a touch of movement and depth. A gentle flare at the hem completed the look, giving it a graceful, flowing finish.

The rich black tone brought classic elegance to the red carpet, while the modern cut added a bold, confident flair. With effortless poise, Laila embodied both strength and sophistication, making her appearance one of the standout fashion moments of the festival.

Mai Omar Wears Rami Kadi Couture at the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival

Mai Omar graced the “Nouvelle Vague” screening red carpet during the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival in a graceful white satin gown by Maison Rami Kadi. The off-shoulder silhouette, paired with soft draping along the bust, offered a timeless yet modern look. The sculpted back drape added a dramatic touch, while the flared overskirt brought movement and depth to the look.

Delicate feather embroidery gave the gown a light, ethereal feel, perfectly suited to the glamour of Cannes. Mai Omar carried the look with confidence and grace, creating a memorable red carpet moment that reflected both sophistication and a subtle sense of romance.

Jameela Jamil Wears Rami Kadi Couture at the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival

Jameela Jamil made a stunning appearance at the 2025 Kering Women In Motion Awards and Cannes Film Festival Presidential Dinner in a chic black strapless gown by Rami Kadi Couture. The form-fitting design exuded effortless sophistication, while blush pink accents added a soft touch, enhancing the gown's delicate flair. The look balanced bold simplicity with refined feminine detail.

This vision of modern elegance served as a classy yet striking appearance. Elevated by delicate pink detailing, Jameela Jamil carried the look with a graceful confidence that captured the spirit of Cannes elegance.

Kuwaiti influencer Mrmr Wears Rami Kadi Couture at the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival

Mrmr brought celestial elegance to the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival in a moonbeam strapless gown by Maison Rami Kadi. Part of the “Chaîne des Danses” collection, the design featured shimmering gold sunray embroidery and a sculpted crepe corset, creating a striking balance of grace and structure.

With its ethereal design and intricate details, the gown came to life through Mrmr’s confident presence, capturing the timeless elegance of Cannes.

Model Francesca Sofia Novello Wears Rami Kadi at the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival

Francesca Sofia Novello, model and wife of Italian Racer Valentino Rossi, brought a fresh elegance to the “Highest 2 Lowest” premiere at the 78th Cannes Film Festival, wearing a sleek off-white creation by Maison Rami Kadi from the “Unveiled” bridal RTW collection. With a glimmering asymmetric bodice, crepe skirt, and flowing cape, she delivered a look both sleek and romantic.

Francesca Sofia’s look was effortlessly elegant, capturing attention with her refined presence and graceful confidence, turning heads and leaving a lasting impression.

Model Caroline Hu Wears Rami Kadi Couture at the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival

Caroline Hu stunned at the “Highest 2 Lowest” premiere during the 78th Cannes Film Festival in a luminous off-white satin gown by Maison Rami Kadi. Embellished with baroque-inspired embroidery in silk threads and sparkling crystals, the look fused classic romance with modern glamour, making her a vision of refined allure on the red carpet.

Gracefully worn by Caroline Hu, the gown’s intricate design and structured elegance created a memorable look that captivated the audience and added effortless sophistication to her presence.

Lama Alakeel Wears Rami Kadi at the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival

Lama Alakeel made a graceful entrance at the “Highest 2 Lowest” red carpet during the 78th Cannes Film Festival, wearing a refined off-white crepe satin gown by Maison Rami Kadi. From the “Unveiled” bridal RTW collection, the strapless silhouette featured soft silk pleatings and a draped neck shawl, offering a fresh take on understated elegance. Her look embodied luxury with a modern bridal twist.

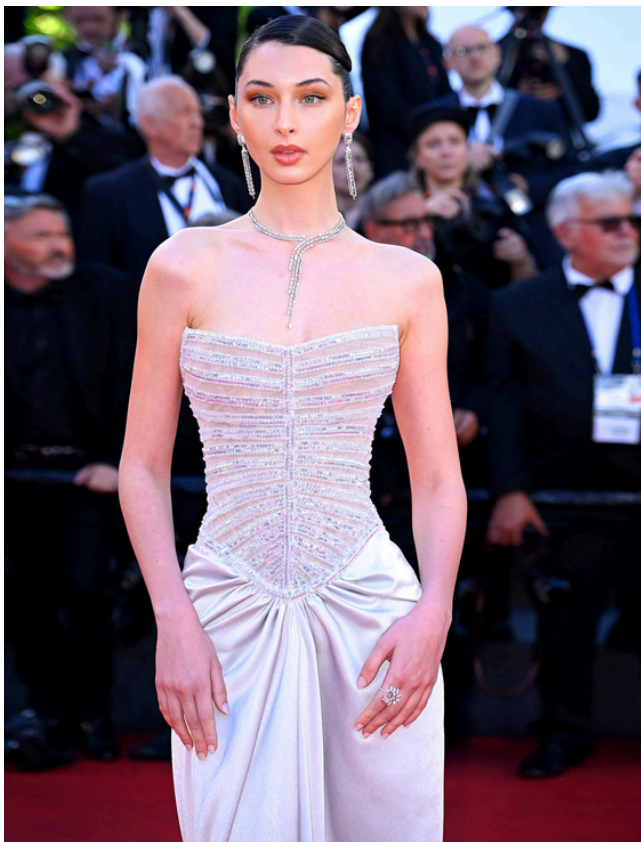

Carrying a sense of effortless grace, Lama Alakeel drew all eyes on the red carpet.

Model Myriem Boukadida Wears Rami Kadi Couture at the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival

Model Myriem Boukadida made a stunning impression on the “Vie Privée” red carpet at the 78th Cannes Film Festival, wearing a custom silver strapless gown by Rami Kadi. The gown featured fluid embroidery and a sculpted draped skirt, seamlessly blending architectural drama with refined femininity. Her look captured the essence of couture craftsmanship, exuding both glamour and contemporary allure.

Elegantly worn by Myriem, the couture gown’s sleek design created a striking look that captivated the Cannes audience and elevated her red carpet presence.

Belgian Model Rose Bertram Wears Rami Kadi Couture at the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival

At the “Vie Privée” red carpet during the 78th Cannes Film Festival, Belgian model Rose Bertram’s sandshell off-shoulder gown by Rami Kadi captivated the audience with its stunning design. From the “Meydān” collection, the dress featured intricate 3D floral embellishments that added sculptural depth to its elegant silhouette. The look balanced intricate artistry with contemporary flair, redefining red carpet style.

Rose wore the couture gown with effortless elegance. Its sleek silhouette highlighted her presence and captured attention on the Cannes red carpet.

Socialite Dy Miryan Wears Rami Kadi Couture at the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival

Socialite Dy Miryan graced “The History of Sound” red carpet at the 78th Cannes Film Festival in a custom Maison Rami Kadi strapless crimson crepe gown. The dress showcased structured draping and a sculpted silhouette that flowed into a soft flared hem, blending architectural precision with graceful movement. This striking look captured timeless sophistication, making a bold statement on the prestigious red carpet.

Dy Miryan wore the custom gown with refined grace, radiating confidence on the Cannes red carpet.

TV Personality Loujain Adada Wears Rami Kadi Couture at the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival

TV personality Loujain Adada lit up “The History of Sound” red carpet at the 78th Cannes Film Festival in a gold asymmetric gown from the ‘Meydān’ collection. With a flowing silk chiffon cape, the look radiated elegance and showcased the collection’s refined craftsmanship. The radiant gold tones and dramatic silhouette created a captivating presence, perfectly complementing the glamour of Cannes' most celebrated stage.

Carrying herself with elegance, Loujain brought the gold gown to life, her presence on the Cannes red carpet both magnetic and memorable.

British Actress and Model Amy Jackson Wears Rami Kadi Couture at the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival

At the 78th annual Cannes Film Festival, British actress and model Amy Jackson made a striking entrance at the amfAR Gala, presented by Chopard. She arrived in a custom Maison Rami Kadi gown—sleek, black, and featuring an asymmetric off-the-shoulder neckline. The design blended modern minimalism with bold elegance, perfectly capturing Amy's refined style and the glamour of the evening.

With effortless poise, Amy Jackson brought her custom black gown to life, her presence at the amfAR Gala both striking and unforgettable in the heart of Cannes.

Youmi Wears Rami Kadi Couture at the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival

Youmi made a stunning impression at the amfAR Gala during the 78th Cannes Film Festival, in partnership with Chopard. She wore a blossom pink Maison Rami Kadi gown, exuding dreamy sophistication. The strapless silhouette, embellished with delicate crystals, shimmered with every step, blending couture artistry with her signature charm and modern glamour.

Youmi's presence at the amfAR Gala was magnetic, radiating confidence and elegance that left a lasting mark on the evening's glamour in Cannes.

Model Mahlagha Jaberri Wears Rami Kadi Couture at the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival

Model Mahlagha Jaberri made a captivating statement on the red carpet at “La Venue De L’avenir” during the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival. She wore a custom deep blue gown featuring a beaded bodice paired with a voluminous feathered skirt that gracefully faded into black. The striking design blended intricate detail with dramatic flair, perfectly showcasing her elegant presence and timeless style.

Mahlagha stunned everyone with her striking ensemble and confident aura, effortlessly embodying the spirit of grace and allure at Cannes.

Model Coco Rocha Wears Rami Kadi Couture at the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival

The 78th Cannes Festival was illuminated by model Coco Rocha's striking appearance at the Kilian Paris party. She wore a multicolored holographic mini pleated dress from the "Les Miroirs" collection, featuring a 3D print on sequined fabric and a voluminous shoulder bow. The bold design fused futuristic sparkle with playful volume, perfectly showcasing her vibrant style and confident presence.

With undeniable charm and flair, Coco Rocha lit up the night, captivating the crowd with her dazzling outfit and fearless attitude.

TV presenter Sara Gündogan Wears Rami Kadi Couture at the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival

TV presenter Sara Gündogan graced the “La Venue De L’Avenir” red carpet during the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival in a powder blue muslin gown from the “Chaîne des Danses” collection. The delicate crystal embroidery and flowing cape sleeves created an ethereal, elegant effect. The soft fabric and graceful silhouette combined to evoke both classic beauty and modern sophistication.

With effortless grace, Sarah brought a fresh and refined energy that truly stood out at the festival.

Yusur Al-Khalidi Wears Rami Kadi Couture at the 78th Annual Cannes Film Festival

At the “La Venue De L’Avenir” red carpet during the 78th Cannes Film Festival, Yusur Al-Khalidi captivated onlookers in a custom black gown. The dress featured a structured corset, an embroidered off-shoulder neckline, and a dramatic overskirt, combining classic elegance with striking drama for a truly unforgettable look.

Yusur owned the evening, turning heads with her powerful style and undeniable charisma, commanding attention and admiration throughout the night.

Maison Rami Kadi's presence at the 78th Cannes Film Festival highlighted its creative and modern take on couture. With bold designs and detailed craftsmanship, each look stood out on the red carpet. The collection showed the brand's strong identity and its fresh, confident approach to today's fashion.

For Media Inquiries:

Mira Abou Jaoude - Head of Marketing & PR
mira@rami-kadi.com
+961 70 992 393

Lyn Awar - Marketing and PR Coordinator press@rami-kadi.com
+961 70 637 656